NOTICE

The Department of Sociology, in association with IQAC, is collaborating with the Robin Hood Army, a zero-fund, non-profit organization, as part of their Independence Day Drive to collect food grains for underprivileged communities.

A food grain donation box will be placed near the college entrance corridor from 12th August 2025 to 14th August 2025. All members of the college community are encouraged to contribute food grains such as rice, wheat, pulses, etc.

Donations can be made between 10:00 AM to 1:00 PM in the college. On 12th August 2025, Robin Hood Army volunteers will also interact with and guide participants on how they can volunteer and assist in the collection process.

All are encouraged to donate food grains and participate in the volunteering activity.
